

PRAYER MINISTRIES

CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY

When we pray specifically and expect to hear from the Father, we are praying purposeful prayers. The word purpose can be looked at two different ways. There is purpose that is meaning, the reason of existence, and there is purpose that is intent, the reason of action. Purposeful prayer should have both meaning and intent. When we pray, we should know what we are praying for and with the intention to receive an answer.

When you pray, let your requests be made known unto God. Prayer is to be continual, never ending. The best way to add more purpose, more intent, and more meaning to your prayers is to start praying, and pray the best you know how to, right now, and keep on praying. God rewards those who diligently seek Him. He intends for prayer to be for your good and the good of the Church.

Prayer Directives:

- Pray for certainty of mind and clarity of requests over your future prayer times.
- Pray for a strong grasp of how God views the prayers of His people.
- Pray for the anointing of prayer, that it may be passionate and full of faith.
- Pray for all doubt and other hinderances to your prayers to be removed.
- Pray for God to provide you with partners in prayer.
- Pray that all your prayers will be prayed with the intent to hear from God.
- Pray that God's will above all others will be done in all things.
- Pray for strength and resolve to pray through.
- Pray for the Word to be opened to you for instruction and growth in prayer.
- Pray that your prayers would never be just rehearsed lines that mean little to you.
- Pray for a heart that is thoughtful to intercede for others.
- Pray for your prayer life to be victorious in tearing down strongholds of the enemy in your life and those you are praying for.
- Pray because God receives glory from it.
- Pray because it's the best way for the Church to partner with God, and see the Great Commission fulfilled His way, and not ours.

PRAYER MINISTRIES

CHURCH OF GOD OF PROPHECY

When we pray specifically and expect to hear from the Father, we are praying purposeful prayers. The word purpose can be looked at two different ways. There is purpose that is meaning, the reason of existence, and there is purpose that is intent, the reason of action. Purposeful prayer should have both meaning and intent. When we pray, we should know what we are praying for and with the intention to receive an answer.

When you pray, let your requests be made known unto God. Prayer is to be continual, never ending. The best way to add more purpose, more intent, and more meaning to your prayers is to start praying, and pray the best you know how to, right now, and keep on praying. God rewards those who diligently seek Him. He intends for prayer to be for your good and the good of the Church.

Prayer Directives:

- Pray for certainty of mind and clarity of requests over your future prayer times.
- Pray for a strong grasp of how God views the prayers of His people.
- Pray for the anointing of prayer, that it may be passionate and full of faith.
- Pray for all doubt and other hinderances to your prayers to be removed.
- Pray for God to provide you with partners in prayer.
- Pray that all your prayers will be prayed with the intent to hear from God.
- Pray that God's will above all others will be done in all things.
- Pray for strength and resolve to pray through.
- Pray for the Word to be opened to you for instruction and growth in prayer.
- Pray that your prayers would never be just rehearsed lines that mean little to you.
- Pray for a heart that is thoughtful to intercede for others.
- Pray for your prayer life to be victorious in tearing down strongholds of the enemy in your life and those you are praying for.
- Pray because God receives glory from it.
- Pray because it's the best way for the Church to partner with God, and see the Great Commission fulfilled His way, and not ours.